**NEW YORK, April 23.—Cotton was quiet and rather quiet in-day with the close net uncharged to 2 buttes higher. The market opened 2 to 3 points lower unther a renewal of vesterday's centered selling. Reaction.

**Sex sentiment was eccouraned by the relatively easy ruling of cables, but offerings were not as heavy as they were an vester day's decline, and prices shoon firmed up on rhort covering and fresh huring, probably inspired by unfavorable weather reports, builtish accounts from the dry goods trade and expectations of a bullish weekly weather report.

**A few additional May notices were reported in circulation at the opening, but were evidently soon stoped, and there was some spot house buying of that nosition. Demand seemed to take of off on the advance, however, and the weekly weather reports falled to inspire any immediate demend of consequence with the result that offerings increased during the afternoon, and prices eased back to nearly list night's close unfer received steady:
